Annual Report.

-----X-----

Now comes John Bredimus administrator of the estate of Michael Bredimus deceased, and reports his doings herein since his appointment as such administrator on the 8th day of April, 1898, and says that the only property coming into his hands was the West twenty-five (25) feet of Lot Thirty-two (32) in Block Thirty-seven (37) of J. Lyons' Addition to the town of Ft. Des Moines, now a part of the City of Des Moines, Iowa, which said property was occupied by the said Michael Bredimus and his wife and widow who survived and now survives him, <sup>as a homestead</sup> Madeline Bredimus. That the said Madeline Bredimus as the widow of the said Michael Bredimus <sup>and is</sup> was entitled to the possession of the said property as a homestead, and that the same has been rented a portion of the time since the appointment of your administrator, and that he has collected from rents upon that account Forty-five (45) Dollars.

That he has expended in the repairing of the said property the sum of more than Eighteen (18) Dollars. That he has boarded, and lodged the said Madeline Bredimus who is now eighty-six years of age, and nursed her during the said period, and that the said board and nursing was reasonably worth the sum of Four (4) Dollars per week for the said period of from April the 8th, 1898, to September the 19th, 1900, a period of One hundred and thirty (130) weeks, making the amount due him for board lodging and nursing, the sum of Five hundred and twenty (520) Dollars, leaving a balance due him upon the said account.

ture or part of it, that was used by the said Michael and Madeline Bredimus in housekeeping.

That there are debts against the said estate amounting, exclusive of interest, to One hundred and fifty-four  $62/100$  (154.62) Dollars, as follows:

To expenses of funeral of decedent, paid by Nicholas Bredimus, and due from the estate to him,	$47.00
▪ sidewalk taxes, paid by Nicholas Bredimus in 1893,	19.50
To general taxes upon said property paid by Nicholas Bredimus in 1893,	11.43.
▪ general taxes paid in 1894 by Nicholas Bredimus,	23.00
▪ general taxes paid in 1895, by Nicholas Bredimus,	21.20
▪ general taxes paid in 1896, by Nicholas Bredimus,	2.88
▪ general taxes paid by Nicholas Bredimus in 1897,	3.06
▪ general taxes paid by Nicholas Bredimus in 1897,	2.56
▪ general taxes paid by Nicholas Bredimus in 1898,	5.30
▪ general taxes paid in 1899 by Nicholas Bredimus,	5.10

That in addition thereto, the said property was sold for paying taxes in the year 1898, and that the treasurer's certificate of purchase was bought by the said Nicholas Bredimus and is now held by him, amounting without interest to 13.79.

That part of the said taxes were paid by the said Nicholas Bredimus prior to the death of the said Michael Bredimus, but the said Michael Bredimus promised to repay the same.

That your petitioner believes it to be to the best interests of the said estate, that the said property be sold as the only means of paying the debts against the same, and as the only means of furnishing support for the said Madeline Bredimus, widow of the said Michael Bredimus.

Now comes John Bredimus and shows to the court that he was duly appointed administrator of the estate of the said Michael Bredimus, deceased, on or about the 8th day of April, 1898; that the said Michael Bredimus died seized and the owner of the West Twenty-five(25) feet of <sup>the east half (1/2) of</sup> Lot Two(2) in Block Thirty-seven(37) of J. Lyon's addition to the town of Ft. Des Moines, now a part of the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

That the said Michael Bredimus had no personal property or estate whatever, except a small amount of furniture which was old, out of repair and of very small value, which would not bear the expense of sale, and is wholly inadequate to satisfy the debts and charges against the said estate.

That the said real property above described, consists of a small house in bad repair and constantly in need of improvements, which rents for Six Dollars($6.00) per month, but that the said rentals will not pay the expense of keeping the buildings upon said property in repair and paying the taxes upon the said property.

That the said Michael Bredimus who took the title to the said property in his name, as Michael Bradimus, left surviving him, his widow, Madeline Bredimus who is now living at the age of about eighty-four(84) years, who has no means whatever of support, except her interest in the said estate of her said husband.
